(ii) Provision for current income tax is made on the tax liability payable on taxable income after considering tax allowances, deductions and exemptions determined in accordance with the prevailing tax laws. The differences between taxable income and the net profit or loss before tax for the year as per the financial statements are identified and the tax effect of the deferred tax asset or deferred tax liabilities recorded for timing differences, i.e. differences that originate in one accounting period and reverse in another. The tax effect is calculated on accumulated timing differences at the end of the accounting year based on effective tax rates that would apply in the years in which the timing differences are expected to reverse.

(iii) Deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is reasonable certainty that they will be realized and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each balance sheet date.

(i) Accounting for Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognized in terms of Accounting Standard 29 — 'Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets' (AS-29), issued by the ICAI. when there is a present legal or statutory obligation as a result of past events, where it is probable that there will be outflow of resources to settle the obligation and when a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made.

Contingent Liabilities are recognized only when there is a possible obligation arising from past events due to occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or where any present obligation cannot be measured in terms of future outflow of resources or where a reliable estimate of the obligation cannot be made. Obligations are assessed on an ongoing basis and only those having a largely probable outflow of resources are provided for.

Contingent Assets are not recognized in the financial statements.
